

FAQ's Portraits-Tiny Treasures

What outfits should the baby wear?

For tiny treasures sessions, we suggest that the baby dress in solid white onesie. Please bring any piece of clothing or object that has a meaning to it for the session. We can incorporate these into the final product. We also offer the option of taking the baby with just a diaper on.

How long will it take to view our proofs?

All of your proofs will be available to be viewed online within (2) business days of your session. You will be able to log on to our website, view your images and purchase any prints you would like. This also allows other family members and friends to view them and purchase them as well. Tiny Treasures final product will be available 3 to 4 weeks after the session. You will be given the option to make any changes that you would like, as well as final approval of the print before printing.

How many poses do I get to have?

We will shoot as many poses as needed. It all depends on the subject(s). We do not limit poses. We want to guarantee that you get a great image and there is no limit on that!
